WHY WE WALK

This is Dimari. Waiting to be matched with his own Big Brother.

Dimari has big dreams! He plans to be the first NBA/NHL/NFL player to sing the National Anthem and then win the game, but he needs a Big Brother to keep him grounded and play alongside him on his rise to success.

We walk for children on Long Island facing adversity because we know mentoring works. Mentoring is preventative -- having a mentor improves school attendance, performance, self-confidence and the ability to make good decisions. Kids with mentors are less likely to engage in drug and gang activity.

- 80% of Littles in our programs are earning better grades.
- More than 70% of Littles now consider a college degree an obtainable goal.

We all have an opportunity, a chance to change a child's life. There are 400 boys, just like Dimari, in our own communities that need our help. Kids that need someone to offer guidance, keeping them on the right path so their dreams can come true.

Be their champion by walking with us so that we can match more children today.
